

Lexington Fall 2011 – Loft Living In New York

It's hard to explain – a feeling, something you sense. You just know when everything is right. It's like stepping into the home of your dreams, and adding that extra something that makes it truly your own. Such as the softness of your napkin after a good meal.

Enjoy the sensation of newly washed bedsheets when you go to bed or the soft wool throw when you feel chilly. It's that original Lexington feeling that makes life as beautiful and valuable as it should be – living in harmony.

We meet in a classic loft, downtown New York. The traffic is hectic, crowds of people are rushing through the streets and the crisp cool air reminds us of fall. Our block consists of brick houses, black fire staircases and a lot of windows, but when you reach the loft, you meet the harmony of feeling at home.

Our loft has a terrace, where you can go out and enjoy dinner with good friends on a fall evening.

The owner of the apartment is an artist – maybe not that established, but creative – trying to express herself and making this into her living.

We have treasured the authentic Lexington heritage for Fall 2011. Classic Lexington styles and the best Lexington qualities are the keys for this season.

You are already familiar with our Pin Point Oxford cotton, with the twisted yarn, which makes the bedding extraordinary rich and soft, yet at the same time crisp like a new ironed shirt! This gives the real Lexington feeling.

There is a small check in the authentic Lexington poplin quality. This quality is unique for us, a special shirt fabric with our secret finishing, which makes it an experience to sleep in. And for all of you who love the stars – the sateen bedding with the contrasting board must fulfill your dreams!

To match all this and give you the possibility to create the perfect bedroom, there are shams, throws and bedspreads in different qualities to create the perfect Lexington feeling. You will find lambs wool, velvet and finest cashmere.

The shams and throws from the lounge area will all give you a cozy feeling, which correspond with the rest of the collection, and the real heritage of Lexington.

We have prepared the dinner outdoors on the terrace. The Lexington Living theme is classic – blue and white – which creates the Lexington feeling.

New for the kitchen is our "professional" line – utensils with extra protection against heat and best comfort for the Lexington chef!

Kristina Lindhe, CEO and Creative Director says: "I am very happy and proud to present the Lexington Fall 2011 collection.

We have succeeded in combining our classical Lexington look with new experiences and designs, in unique qualities.

It's very clear that our intention is to show Lexingtons heritage in this collection, and I am very pleased with that".

Welcome to our world. Welcome to our dream.
